

FOOTHILLS FOREST PRODUCTS INC.

is a manufacturer of dimensional lumber and wood pellets in Grande Cache, Alberta. We are presently recruiting for a:

Power Engineer 4th Class

The successful candidate will fill the position of Heater Building/Kiln Operator, possess a valid ABSA 4th Class Certificate and be able to demonstrate their ability to:

- Work safely;
- Communicate effectively and work as a dedicated team member;
- Think logically to solve problems related to process flow;
- Perform minor maintenance;
- Provide initial response to all incidents (ie. fire, medical aid);
- Operate heavy mobile equipment (Forklift, bucket Loader);
- Work alone and unsupervised on a 24/7/365 rotating schedule of 12-hour shifts.

Applicants for the Heater Building/Kiln Operator position must possess excellent physical fitness and interpersonal skills.

Located near the beautiful mountain town of Grande Cache, Alberta, a community that combines an outdoor lover's paradise with all the desired recreational, health care and retail amenities, we offer:

- A competitive wage and benefits package;
- Temporary accommodations to assist with relocation;
- Steady, full-time employment with the opportunity to be home every night;

If you want to build your career with an enthusiastic and committed team, and to live in a beautiful, friendly community, please send your covering letter and Resume by email to reception@foothillsforestproducts.com by August 15, 2018.

Foothills Forest Products is an equal opportunity employer. While we appreciate the interest of all applicants, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.