

Establish new roots.

Millar Western is a progressive forest company offering diverse, rewarding careers in great Alberta communities, with excellent advancement opportunities and a healthy work-life balance. Grow with us.

Yard Supervisor

Millar Western's Whitecourt Wood Products Division is seeking a Log Yard Supervisor. Reporting to the Fibre Flow Superintendent, this position is responsible for the direction of day-to-day activities and ongoing development and implementation of the safety, quality and production processes for the log yard. He or she will be required to support and work effectively with all yard personnel and other departments to maximize efficiencies in the yard and address operational priorities. Other responsibilities include shift scheduling, ensuring work orders are completed and information is recorded and stored in an accurate manner, interaction with outside customers and sales personnel and the reporting of information required to manage the business.

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate will have three to five years of supervisory experience in a wood products organization with specific emphasis on yard, mobile shop and chip operations, in addition to mechanical maintenance supervisory/planning, analytical and problem solving experience. He or she will possess strong organizational skills as well as the ability to direct, support and motivate others within a team environment. Experience with SAP (maintenance and financial) systems will be considered an asset.
