

Event Manager Opportunity Truck Loggers Association

The Truck Loggers Association was formed in 1943 as a non-profit society to give independent timber harvesting contractors a collective voice in the changes taking place in BC's forest industry. Now in its 75th year, the TLA's advocacy has attracted a diverse membership including timber harvesting contractors, suppliers, independent forest product producers, small tenure holders, and communities located throughout BC. With a growing membership of more than 490 member companies, the TLA is known as an influential grassroots voice for the small business interests of BC's forest industry.

The Truck Loggers Association is seeking an Events Manager, who must be able to effectively craft and deliver a series of TLA events, many of which have a long and storied reputation of being both fun and professional.

The position is based out of downtown Vancouver where you will be a key member of a small professional team. Some minor travel is required to attend TLA functions and events around BC.

A detailed job description can be found on the TLA's website at www.tla.ca/EventSearch. Applicants should be prepared to provide compensation expectations with their application.
The job posting closes March 16.
