

TECHNICAL TRAINING SUPERVISOR – MOULDERS / GRINDERS

Located in the beautiful Okanagan region of British Columbia this leader in secondary wood manufacturing produces engineered structural and non-structural products such as posts, beams, siding, fascia and trim. The mill is committed to operational and environmental excellence, workplace safety and continued investment in people and equipment.

A new career opportunity for a Technical Training Supervisor with extensive experience with Moulders, Grinders and related equipment is now available. This Supervisor will provide technical training to equipment operators while promoting a safe and healthy work environment. A detailed position outline is available upon request.

What you will bring to the table:

- A servant leadership mentality which includes the ability to listen, show empathy, coach, persuade and lead by example.
- Extensive knowledge and operating experience of professional moulders used in solid wood processing including maintenance and trouble-shooting of equipment and grinding of machining tools / heads.
- Professional demeanor; good organizational, planning and problem-solving abilities; competent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Flexibility. This position is Monday to Thursday and may be for either of our shifts (Day shift hours are 4:30 am to 3:30 pm; afternoon shift hours 3:00 pm to 2:00 am).

What the company offers in return:

- A challenging and rewarding working environment, with a senior management team dedicated to seeing you succeed.
- A 4/10 schedule that gives you a 3-day weekend, every weekend!
- An excellent benefits package which includes extended health care, vision & dental care, long-term disability and life insurance.
- Up to 3 weeks' paid vacation time annually.
- A Group RSP plan with a company match, up to 3%.
- A competitive salary in the range of $75,000 to $95,000, depending on experience.
- A generous quarterly profit-sharing plan.
- Relocation expenses for suitably qualified candidates.

The Okanagan region provides one of Canada's very best lifestyles. With warm summers and mild winters, you can enjoy the outdoors all year long. Things to do and places to visit are endless. Visit: www.supernaturalbc.com/places-routes/explore/okanagan-valley/.
