

Box 87, Salmon Arm, B.C. V1E 4N2

Junior Forest Technician

Landmark Solutions Ltd. is a diverse natural resource consulting company providing consistent quality services to clients in a wide range of natural resource disciplines. Our clients rely on our innovative and economical solutions to conserve resource values and ensure safe and efficient operations.

Landmark is centrally located in Salmon Arm. In an hour's drive or less you have access to lakes, hiking/camping, world class fly fishing, mountain biking, backcountry skiing and 3 different ski hills.

There are many jobs available to natural resource students. Why choose to work at Landmark? We offer:

- Competitive compensation package that includes:
 - Overtime
 - Paid travel time
 - Health and wellness benefits
 - Annual equipment allowance
 - Profit sharing
 - RRSP contributions
 - Returning employee bonus (for seasonal employees)
- Opportunities for long term employment with increasing role/responsibility and compensation;
- Paid training and professional development opportunities;
- Diversity of project types and locations and job functions;
- Commitment to efficient usage of available technology – Ipads, Lidar, drones etc.;
- Opportunities to use skills and experience working in multiple natural resource disciplines.

We are currently looking to add valuable contributors to our team. The ideal candidates for our Junior Forest Technician positions will demonstrate the following assets:

- Ability to work in a team environment;
- Strong organizational and problem solving skills;
- Self motivation and the ability to work under limited direct supervision;
- Flexibility and a desire to apply skills and knowledge in various capacities;
- Valid Level 1 First Aid and WHMIS Certificates (preferred).

Typical duties, depending on previous experience, include:

- GPS traversing;
- Stream/riparian assessments;
- Timber recce;
- Site plan data collection;
- Road and cutblock development;
- Short term construction and/or marine projects.
- Timber cruising;

If you are seeking a challenging position with opportunities for long term career advancement, then please forward your resume and cover letter to mail@landmark-solutions.ca.

All resumes will be handled in confidence. We thank all those who apply, however, only those applicants selected for interviews will be contacted.

